Bargan hunting may emerge

Market Review & Outlook

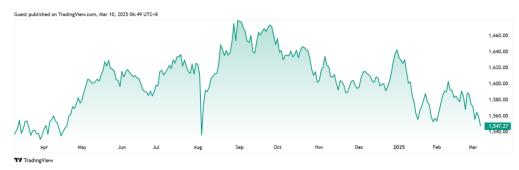

Malaysia Market Review: The FBM KLCI (-0.75%) extended its losses, mirroring the sharp decline in US equities on Thursday night. Market sentiment remained weak, with the REIT sector (+0.64%) being the only gainer, reflecting risk aversion. Meanwhile, the Technology sector (-2.05%) was the worst performer, weighed down by profit-taking and global risk-off sentiment.

Global Markets Review: US stock markets rebounded on Friday after Fed Chairman Powell reaffirmed the resilience of the US economy despite weaker-than-expected labour market data released. However, European markets closed lower as investors reacted to the shifting US trade policy and digested the soft US jobs data. Similarly, Asian markets ended in the red, with the Nikkei leading losses following a surge in Japan's bond yields, alongside the negative sentiment from Wall Street's prior session.

Market Outlook: We expect bargain hunting to emerge following Wall Street's rebound on last Friday. However, we remain cautious, as we anticipate that gains may be short-lived, capped by quick profit-taking amid ongoing geopolitical tensions and uncertainty surrounding US trade policies. On the economic front, key global events this week include the US inflation data, which will be closely watched for further indications of the Fed's policy direction.

Sector focus. We continue to advocate a defensive stance amid market uncertainties, favoring REITs and selective plays in Property, Consumer, and Financial sectors with minimal exposure to foreign trade risks. However, today, the Technology sector may see some bargain hunting following the Nasdaq's overnight rebound after last week's dip.

FBMKLCI Technical Outlook

Technical Commentary: The FBM KLCI gapped down and formed another bearish candle yesterday as the key index sank to close at the lowest level since August 2024. Indicators remained negative with the MACD Line lingered below the Signal Line, while the RSI treaded below 50. Immediate resistance is located at 1,570. Support is envisaged around 1,530.
